215: Preston Trail Golf for Four Priceless
Play the most private course in Dallas. What makes this one of the best golf courses in the state? Let's list the reasons: Location: Far north Dallas, with White Rock Creek meandering through. Layout: Stunning and traditional, with tree-lined fairways, the right amount of water and bunkering, and huge, lightning-fast bent-grass greens. Feel: Cart paths run the way they should--from greens to tees, not the other way around. And caddies are always available to promote playing the game on foot. Mystique: Memorabilia of professional tour players who are also members is tastefully distributed throughout the clubhouse, and the shrine to Mickey Mantle (a longtime member) is awe-inspiring. You'll need serious connections to play this course, but here are some highlights. Preston Trail is a great 18 hole regulation course located at the Preston Trail Golf Club facility. From the longest tees it features 7,091 yards of golf for a part 72. The course was designed by Ralph M. Plummer, ASGCA/Byron Nelson and opened in 1965.
